We were unaware that our 10/14/04 expenditure for absentee ballots constituted an independent expenditure until informed of this error by the FEC in a letter from April 6, 2005. The appropriate report was amended to reflect the change we were instructed to make. This 24 hour notice is now being provided per the order of an FEC letter sent April 29, 2005. We hope this proves satisfactory, and we regret any confusion that our original misclassification of the 10/14/04 absentee ballot expense may have caused. We hope one day to grow big enough to be able to afford a legal department to more accurately handle these classification decisions, but at the present time we are limited, due to a lack of funds, to an all volunteer staff.
